RMSD Update

Dr. Bickert
Superintendent

Right Now! We roll into spring break with a reminder that Mother Nature says it's still winter!

The New Mexico Public Education Department (PED) just released an updated Toolkit yesterday and it can be found at the following link:

Additionally, the PED has recently published the new Social Studies Standards, which may be found here:

Finally, for the past several months a dedicated team of educators have been reviewing and evaluating curricular materials for our K – 8 English/Language Arts adoption. HMH publishing has been recommended and information may be found here:

We wish our cheerleaders success as they head to state on Thursday!

Have a wonderful spring break! Dr. B.
